Sit Down Restaurants – locally owned or highly recommended by us:

Aubrey's, Cedar Bluff:	The owner is a KCHS alum! Salads, Burgers, sandwiches & Southern specials. You can't go wrong with anything on this menu. Great food and atmosphere.
Horn of Plenty:	A KCHS Staff favorite! Locally owned market serving country cooking. Baby Back Ribs, pork chops, chicken, meatloaf, and all the southern veggies to go with them!
Taste of Thai:	Another KCHS staff favorite! Classic dishes, including curries & pad Thai, served in a casual setting with a full bar & a patio.
Parkside Grill	Restaurant serving twists on classic American dishes & drinks in a casual, contemporary setting. Not far from KCHS.
Nick and J's Cafe	Modest joint with counter seats offering breakfast fare, sandwiches & legendary burgers piled with toppings. Everything is made fresh daily. From fresh ground beef to locally bought chicken and eggs to fresh market produce.
Sami's Café	Breakfast and lunch only. Daily lunch specials, freshly created sandwiches, soups, delicious omelets, pancakes and every other breakfast favorite.
Chop House	The owner is a KCHS alum! Salads, sandwiches, steaks, seafood, and more. Generous portions of delicious food using the freshest ingredients.
Puleo's	Blends the traditional "steak and seafood" restaurant with "southern comfort and traditional Italian offerings". The executive chef is a KCHS alum!
Litton's	worth the drive The owner is a KCHS alum! This place has been highlighted in the pages of Southern Living Magazine, ESPN, and is continually voted East Tennessee's best year after year for their legendary hamburgers and delicious desserts.
